Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
August 2, 2015
Do not work for food that perishes
but for the food that endures
for eternal life.
— John 6:27a

Decimoctavo Domingo
del Tiempo Ordinario
2 de agosto de 2015
No trabajen por ese alimento que se acaba,
sino por el alimento que dura
para la vida eterna.
— Juan 6:27a

From the Pastor's Desk… Give us this day our daily bread…

God gave the Israelites bread from heaven to sustain them on their desert journey to the Promised Land. The manna appeared on the ground each day near the place where the people were camped. They could gather only what they needed for the day. If anyone tried to hoard more than a day's portion, it turned rotten and wormy. Only on the sixth day could they gather and save enough for two days: that day and the Sabbath. This truly was daily bread.

At the Last Supper, Jesus instituted the Eucharist, giving us food from heaven – his own body – to sustain us on our spiritual journey from this life to the eternal kingdom of heaven. Jesus continues to give himself to us in the Eucharist each time we attend Mass. This nourishment is necessary for the life and health of our souls. It comes to us through the action of the Holy Spirit and the ministry of the priest on the words of consecration.

In the prayer that Jesus taught us, we pray – "give us this day our daily bread." We believe that God cares about the things we need each day to sustain our lives; he also cares that we have spiritual strength to build up our faith and trust. Knowing God's concern for us can fortify us in times of trial and temptation. Dependent upon a generous and loving God, we must never forget to thank him for all that comes to us.

We also must pray for the spiritual food that is essential in our lives. So, in our prayer we remember the needs of our faith family gathered to worship. We pray for the holy men and women who dedicate their lives to the work of the Church. We pray for ourselves, that we may grow in holiness and charity. As we offer these prayers, we are to remember always how generous is our God, who gives us all good things. How sincere is our thanksgiving prayer today and every day of our lives? God bless you, Fr. Oscar Del escritorio del señor Cura… Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día…

Dios le dio el pan del cielo israelitas para sostenerlos en su viaje por el desierto hacia la Tierra Prometida. El maná apareció en el campo cada día cerca del lugar donde había acampado el pueblo. Podrían reunir sólo lo que necesitan para el día. Si alguien trató de acaparar más de la porción de un día, que resultó podrida y gusanos. Sólo en el sexto día podrían reunirse y ahorrar lo suficiente durante dos días: el día y el sábado. Esto fue verdaderamente pan de cada día.

En la Última Cena, Jesús instituyó la Eucaristía, que nos da la comida del cielo - su propio cuerpo - para sostenernos en nuestro viaje espiritual de esta vida al reino eterno del cielo. Jesús continúa darse a nosotros en la Eucaristía cada vez que asistimos a misa. Este alimento es necesario para la vida y la salud de nuestras almas. Viene a nosotros a través de la acción del Espíritu Santo y el ministerio del sacerdote en las palabras de la consagración.

En la oración que Jesús nos enseñó, oramos - "danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día." Creemos que Dios se preocupa por las cosas que necesitamos cada día para sostener nuestras vidas; él también le importa que tengamos fuerza espiritual para edificar nuestra fe y confianza. Conociendo la preocupación de Dios por nosotros nos puede fortalecer en tiempos de prueba y la tentación. Dependiendo de un Dios generoso y amoroso, nunca debemos olvidar darle las gracias por todo lo que El nos da.

También debemos orar por el alimento espiritual que es esencial en nuestras vidas. Así, en nuestra oración recordamos las necesidades de nuestra familia de fe reunida para adorar. Oramos por los santos hombres y mujeres que dedican su vida a la obra de la Iglesia. Oramos por nosotros mismos, para que podamos crecer en santidad y caridad. Al ofrecer estas oraciones, hemos de recordar siempre lo generoso es nuestro Dios, que nos da todas las cosas buenas. ¿Es sincera nuestra oración de acción de gracias hoy y todos los días de nuestras vidas? Dios los bendiga, P. Oscar
