THE STORY OF OUR REDEMPTION

We begin the final week of Lent with these familiar readings. This year, we hear the Passion from the Gospel of Luke. These readings for Palm Sunday and the Passion used to be read on successive Sundays. Now they are combined into a single feast, so that we may see the whole sweep of the glory and the suffering played out. Jesus accepts the adulation of the crowd, the foreshadowing of his glory in the Resurrection. He bids farewell to his disciples in his last Passover, and forgives his tormentors as he dies on the cross. Later this week, we enter the Holy Triduum of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, when the whole story of our redemption will play out once again.

LA HISTORIA DE NUESTRA REDENCIÓN

Empezamos la última semana de Cuaresma con estas lecturas ya conocidas. Este año, el Domingo de Ramos escuchamos la narración de la Pasión tomada del Evangelio de Lucas. Estas lecturas para el Domingo de Ramos y la Pasión solían leerse los domingos sucesivos. Ahora están combinadas en una sola celebración, para que así podamos ver toda la extensión de la gloria y el sufrimiento llevado a cabo. Jesús acepta la adulación de la gente, el anuncio de su gloria en la Resurrección. Él se despide de sus discípulos en su última pascua; y perdona a sus verdugos cuando muere en la cruz. Más adelante esta semana, entramos al Triduo Pascual de Jueves Santo, Viernes Santo y Sábado Santo, cuando toda la historia de nuestra redención se haga realidad.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Later this week, the Chrism Mass is celebrated in every cathedral in the world in preparation for the Easter Triduum. Only a bishop can consecrate chrism, pure olive oil infused with rich fragrance, so this liturgy is a sign of the unity of the local Church and the bishop's ministry to all who will be baptized and confirmed in our parishes in the coming year. Chrism is also used in the ordination of priests and bishops and the consecration of new altars.

Two other sacramental oils, the unscented olive oil for catechumens and for the sick, will be blessed in the same liturgy and transported carefully to every parish by the beginning of the Triduum. Remember when Noah's dove returned with the sign of the world's rebirth? The dove carried an olive branch, a pledge that God was breathing the world to life again. Yet olives require human nurture. Olives are inedible unless they are cured by human labor. Olive trees grow on sunny slopes, away from the shade of city walls, so they can only be properly tended, cured, and laboriously pressed in peace time. The Chrism Mass with its olive oils expresses God's deepest desires for us, and our resolve to place our lives in service to God's saving, healing, loving plan.

TESOROS DE NUESTRA TRADICION

A finales de esta semana, la Misa del Crisma se celebra en cada catedral del mundo en preparación para el Triduo Pascual. Solo un obispo puede consagrar el crisma, aceite puro de oliva infundido con una rica fragancia, por lo que esta liturgia es un signo de la unidad de la Iglesia local y el ministerio del obispo a todos los que serán bautizados y confirmados en nuestras parroquias el próximo año. El crisma también se usa en la ordenación de sacerdotes y obispos y en la consagración de nuevos altares. Otros dos aceites sacramentales, el aceite de oliva sin aroma para catecúmenos y para enfermos, serán bendecidos en la misma liturgia y transportados cuidadosamente a cada parroquia al comienzo del Triduo. ¿Recuerdas cuando la paloma de Noé regresó con el signo del renacimiento del mundo?

La paloma llevaba una rama de olivo, una promesa de que Dios estaba reviviendo el mundo a la vida nuevamente. Sin embargo, las aceitunas requieren la crianza humana. Las aceitunas son incomibles a menos que sean curadas por el trabajo humano. Los olivos crecen en las laderas soleadas, lejos de la sombra de las murallas de la ciudad, por lo que solo se pueden cuidar, curar y presionar laboriosamente en tiempos de paz. La misa crismal con sus aceites de oliva expresa los deseos más profundos de Dios para nosotros, y nuestra determinación de poner nuestras vidas al servicio del plan salvador, sanador y amoroso de Dios.
