GOD'S PROVIDENCE

Today's readings celebrate God's providence. No matter how wonderful (or heartbreaking) our relationships are, God always provides for us. No one cares for us the way God does.

Isaiah delights us with a deeply intimate image of God caring for us "as a mother comforts her child." The prophet describes us not as the usual "children of God," but as "babies." We should not resist this image, but rejoice in it. Trusting in God's care, we can all let down our guard and rest like infants in the lap of our mother.

Saint Paul's trust in God allows him to be at peace like this. He boldly declares that no one can "make troubles" for him, because he has given himself completely to Jesus. And when Jesus sends his disciples out to preach and heal, he challenges them not to provide for themselves, but to let faith be their guide.

TRANSFORMACIÓN RADICAL

En este Trigésimo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, las lecturas describen todo menos un tiempo ordinario.

Son inquietantes y nos dejan preocupados. La lectura del Antiguo Testamento cuenta acerca de un joven que rompió radicalmente con el pasado para seguir un nuevo camino. El Evangelio describe cómo repentinamente cambia la vida que conocemos si seguimos la llamada de Cristo. El Salmo y Pablo nos aseguran que ese cambio de vida es posible solo a causa del poder del amor de Dios. Se nos presenta una dura elección. Para amar como Dios ama, debemos dejar atrás a nuestras vidas antiguas. Debemos dejar atrás no solo lo malo, el egoísmo y el mal sino lo ordinario, nuestro trabajo diario y lo importante, nuestras familias, nuestras vidas. Amar con Dios ama requiere una transformación radical, no una transición tranquila.

Have you considered making a gift to a charity in your will? This is a very special token of expressing the values you held during your life. Please consider also your faith community of St. Mary and St. Peter.

By leaving a gift you will be leaving a legacy of faith to help to keep the light of Christ for all generations to come.

God Bless you!

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

On June 9, 1597, the Jesuit José de Anchieta died from the Canary Islands, Spain. This saint "apostle of Brazil" was beatified in 1980 thanks to his great humanitarian, literary and evangelizing efforts in Brazil. He arrived in Brazil in 1553 where he learned Tupi, the language of the natives. He taught the Indians, evangelizing them with Christian doctrine and educating them in history, philosophy and medicine. Eventually he founded the Jesuit College of São Paulo de Piratininga where he had the audacity to educate, together with the children of the natives, the children of the Portuguese. For this effort he wrote many books and manuals, which earned him the first writer in Brazil.

Besides being a prolific writer, this missionary dedicated his life to preaching the Gospel in Brazil, a country that he crossed on foot, founding towns and schools for the indigenous Christians. They called him the "flying saint" because of the speed with which he walked. His zeal for the Gospel motivated him to keep walking. As the prophet Isaiah says: "How beautiful are the feet of him who brings good news" (Isaiah 52: 7).

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

El día 9 de junio del año 1597, falleció el jesuita José de Anchieta proveniente de las Islas Canarias, España. Este santo "apóstol de Brasil" fue beatificado en 1980 gracias a sus grandes esfuerzos humanitarios, literarios y evangelizadores en Brasil. Llegó a Brasil en 1553 donde aprendió Tupí, el idioma de los nativos. Enseñaba a los indígenas, evangelizándolos con la doctrina cristiana y educándolos en historia, filosofía y medicina. Eventualmente fundó el Colegio Jesuita de São Paulo de Piratininga donde tuvo la audacia de educar, junto a los hijos de los nativos, los hijos de los portugueses. Para este esfuerzo escribió muchos libros y manuales, cosa que le mereció ser el primer escritor en Brasil.

Además de ser un escritor prolífico, este misionero dedicó su vida a predicar el Evangelio en Brasil, país que cruzó a pie, fundando pueblos y escuelas para los indígenas cristianos. Estos le llamaban el "santo volador" por la velocidad con que caminaba. Su celo por el Evangelio lo motivaba a seguir caminando. Como dice el profeta Isaías: "Que hermosos son los pies del que trae buena nuevas" (Isaías 52:7).
