HUMILITY

Humility is a virtue we don't see much in our times. It seems that bragging, swaggering, and arrogance dominate our fashion for everything and our Internet conversations. Who hasn't been irritated by the "trolls" who try (usually with bad grammar and poor spelling) to start an online fight with those whose opinions do not align with theirs? Our stores, catalogs, and online shopping sites are full of useless items geared in use and price to the very rich, as ordinary, useful things seem to fade off the sales scene. As the rich get richer, the poor get poorer and the middle class is fading away. What is the antidote to this? Humility is a good place to start. Devotion to God is worth more than riches. "The father of orphans and the defender of widows is God in his holy dwelling. God gives a home to the forsaken; [God] leads forth prisoners to prosperity."

LA HUMILDAD

La humildad es una virtud que no vemos mucho en estos días. Parece que la vanidad, la prepotencia y la arrogancia dominan nuestras costumbres de todo y en nuestras conversaciones en Internet. ¿Quién no se ha molestado por los trolls de quienes intentan (por lo general con una mala gramática y falta de ortografía) empezar una pelea con aquellas personas que no coinciden con sus opiniones? Nuestras tiendas, catálogos y tiendas virtuales en línea están llenas de cosas inútiles destinados al uso y por el precio a los ricos, en tanto las cosas ordinarias parecen desaparecer de esos lugares de venta. A medida que los ricos se hacen más ricos, los pobres se van haciendo más pobres y la clase media va desapareciendo. ¿Cuál es el antidoto para esto? La humildad es un buen lugar para empezar. La devoción a Dios vale mucho más que todas las riquezas. "Padre de huérfanos, protector de viudas, Dios vive en su santa morada, Dios prepara casa a los desvalidos, libera a los cautivos y los enriquece".

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The readings today center on mindfulness, awareness of where we stand in God's plan. The mountain of Sinai carries a message of the majesty and distance of God, while Jesus' presence as host of the banquet speaks of intimacy and mystery. September's shadow calls us all to mindfulness as we prepare to return to life outside of summer. The Christian life holds these two places of knowledge of God in careful balance. Even in the accounts of the Passion we see the table of the upper room in balance with the Mount of Olives.

Altar means "high place," yet it is also a table. The former liturgy of the Latin Rite began with the priest bowing at the foot of the altar's three steps, chanting Introibo ad altare Dei, or "I will go to the altar of God," followed by the altar servers' response, "The God who gives joy to my youth." Many parishioners can recall and recite this scene by heart. As with so many things in liturgy, there are layers of meaning in our worship. The altar table evokes memories of the high places once reserved for encounter with the holy, and the intimacy of the table where hospitality draws us to share food and drink.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Las lecturas de hoy se centran en la atención plena, la conciencia de dónde nos encontramos en el plan de Dios. La montaña del Sinaí lleva un mensaje de la majestad y la distancia de Dios, mientras que la presencia de Jesús como anfitrión del banquete habla de intimidad y misterio. La sombra de septiembre nos llama a la atención plena mientras nos preparamos para volver a la vida fuera del verano. La vida cristiana mantiene estos dos lugares de conocimiento de Dios en un equilibrio cuidadoso. Incluso en los relatos de la Pasión vemos la mesa de la habitación superior en equilibrio con el Monte de los Olivos. Altar significa "lugar alto", pero también es una mesa. La antigua liturgia del Rito latino comenzó con el sacerdote inclinándose al pie de los tres escalones del altar, cantando Introibo ad altare Dei, o "Iré al altar de Dios", seguido de la respuesta de los servidores del altar, "El Dios quien da alegría a mi juventud". Muchos feligreses pueden recordar y recitar esta escena de memoria. Al igual que con muchas cosas en la liturgia, hay niveles de significado en nuestra adoración. La mesa del altar evoca recuerdos de los lugares altos que alguna vez se reservaron para el encuentro con lo sagrado, y la intimidad de la mesa donde la hospitalidad nos lleva a compartir comida y bebida.
