GOD IS ON THE SIDE OF THE POOR

Two of today's readings make it quite clear that God is on the side of the poor. Amos describes in detail the exploitation of the poor and needy. The psalm repeats that God acts to benefit the poor and lowly. But Luke turns things upside down, telling a tale of a conflicted steward, about to be fired, who demonstrates his cleverness and is rewarded. Like the community to whom Paul writes in Timothy, these readings are personal, directed to believers, members of the Jewish and Christian communities, who struggle to deal with personal choices about how to conduct their lives. They offer an outline for how God wishes us to live in a world as complicated and as confusing as our own.

DIOS ESTÁ DEL LADO DE LOS POBRES

Dos de las lecturas de hoy ponen muy en claro que Dios está del lado de los pobres. Amós describe en detalle el abuso de los pobres y necesitados. El Salmo repite que Dios actúa en beneficio de los pobres y los humildes. Pero Lucas pone las cosas de cabeza, contando una historia de un mayordomo en conflicto, a punto de ser despedido, que demuestra astucia y es recompensado. Como la comunidad a la que Pablo escribe en Timoteo, estas lecturas son personales, dirigidas a los creyentes, miembros de las comunidades judías y cristianas que tienen dificultades con elecciones personales de cómo conducir sus vidas. Ofrecen un bosquejo de cómo Dios desea que vivamos en un mundo tan complicado y tan confundido como el nuestro.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Although June is the month most associated with weddings in the United States, September has become more popular in recent years. Wedding celebrations always require some savvy planning, and people who have a talent for hospitality in the mix. At the wedding feast at Cana, the mother of Jesus was recruited to deal with some of the details of the banquet, and when a very understandable crisis arose, she did what she could to rescue the party. Anyone who has ever run out of ice, dessert, or table settings knows the stress!

Slowly, the memory of Jesus Christ's blessing of this marriage feast led the Church to form a way to bless marriages. A thousand years ago weddings migrated from the family home to the doors of the church, where the celebration was held in public view. From this practice came a prayer called the "Nuptial Blessing," one of the most solemn prayers in our tradition. It is very much like the prayers by which baptismal water and chrism are consecrated, the ordination prayer over a priest, and the Eucharistic Prayers over bread and wine. Four hundred fifty years ago, weddings moved inside the church building. All of this gives married couples good reason to celebrate their anniversaries well, especially with the clinking of glasses filled with good wine.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Aunque junio es el mes más asociado con las bodas en los Estados Unidos, septiembre se ha vuelto más popular en los últimos años. Las celebraciones de bodas siempre requieren una planificación inteligente y personas que tienen talento para la hospitalidad en la mezcla. En el banquete de bodas en Cana, la madre de Jesús fue reclutada para ocuparse de algunos de los detalles del banquete, y cuando surgió una crisis muy comprensible, hizo lo que pudo para rescatar a la fiesta. ¡Cualquiera que se haya quedado sin hielo, postre o mesa sabe el estrés! Poco a poco, el recuerdo de la bendición de Jesucristo de esta fiesta matrimonial llevó a la Iglesia a formar una forma de bendecir los matrimonios. Hace mil años, las bodas migraron de la casa familiar a las puertas de la iglesia, donde la celebración se llevó a cabo a la vista del público. De esta práctica surgió una oración llamada "Bendición nupcial", una de las oraciones más solemnes de nuestra tradición. Es muy parecido a las oraciones por las cuales se consagra el agua bautismal y el crisma, la oración de ordenación sobre un sacerdote y las oraciones eucarísticas sobre pan y vino. Hace cuatrocientos cincuenta años, las bodas se trasladaron al interior del edificio de la iglesia. Todo esto da a las parejas casadas una buena razón para celebrar bien sus aniversarios, especialmente con el tintineo de vasos llenos de buen vino.
