A LITTLE FAITH

Today our readings are about faith, frustration, and how much is enough. Habakkuk is a complainer having an argument with God. Timothy is encouraging a community challenged by cowardice and the apostles want more faith than they have. Things aren't happening fast enough for any of them or for us. All of them and we want God to do something sooner rather than later and we want God to give us a reason to believe that it will all work out. What does God do? God puts it back on them—and us—telling Habakkuk to describe the world he wants; telling the apostles to do more than the expected. Doing more with less is a familiar phrase today and a reminder that a little faith may be enough even for the most difficult times.

UN POCO DE FE

Hoy nuestras lecturas acerca de la fe, la frustración y cuánto es suficiente. El profeta Habacuc es un quejoso que tiene una discusión con Dios. Timoteo está animando a una comunidad desafiada por la cobardía y los apóstoles quieren más fe de la que tienen. Las cosas no suceden lo suficientemente rápido para ninguno de ellos. Todos ellos y nosotros queremos que Dios haga algo mucho más antes que después y queremos que Dios nos dé una razón para creer que todo saldrá bien. ¿Qué es lo que quiere Dios? Dios se lo devuelve a ellos, y a nosotros, diciéndole a Habacuc que describa el mundo que él quiere; diciéndole a los apóstoles hacer más de lo que se espera. Haciendo más con menos es una frase muy conocida hoy y un recuerdo que un poco de fe puede ser suficiente incluso en los momentos difíciles.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

While many celebrate the discovery of America this week, we Latinos rather celebrate Columbus Day, insisting that Columbus could not discover what was neither lost nor hidden. On October 12, 1492, Rodrigo de Triana shouted: "Land in sight." These were the first European words that sounded in the Western Hemisphere. Rodrigo shouted to the Spaniards agitated and tired for their long journey. He gave them the good news that they were about to arrive in Guanahani, which Christopher Columbus renamed San Salvador.

This is how a new town was generated in America. A mixed race was begotten in the search for Asia and was then given birth with the spilling of indigenous blood at the hands of the conqueror. Over time the American continent populated by natives, has received European, African and Asian blood, culture and language. In this way our miscegenation has been developed. Let's celebrate that we are a mixture of blood, cultures, languages and beliefs. We are a mixed race, born in pain; We work and fight for a better life.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

Mientras muchos celebran el descubrimiento de América esta semana, los latinos celebramos más bien el Día de la Raza, insistiendo que Colón no pudo descubrir lo que no estaba ni perdido ni escondido. El 12 de octubre de 1492, Rodrigo de Triana grito: "Tierra a la vista". Estas fueron las primeras palabras europeas que sonaron en el hemisferio occidental. Rodrigo gritaba a los españoles agitados y cansados por su largo viaje. Él les daba la buena noticia de que estaban por llegar a Guanahani, que Cristóbal Colón renombró San Salvador.

Es así como se engendró un nuevo pueblo en América. Una raza mestiza se engendró en la búsqueda de Asia y luego fue dada a luz con el derrame de sangre indígena a manos del conquistador. A través del tiempo el continente americano poblado por nativos, ha recibido sangre, cultura e idioma europea, africana y asiática. De esta manera se ha ido desarrollando nuestro mestizaje. Celebramos que somos una mezcla de sangres, culturas, lenguas y creencias. Somos raza mestiza, nacida en el dolor; trabajamos y luchamos por una vida mejor.

Growing in faith and learning more about the Catholic Faith for adults! October 3rd @ 7:15—8:15 pm

Please join us for a study on our faith. Through the use of Holy Scripture, the Catholic Catechism, and the writings of the saints, we will explore the beauty and truth present within the teachings of the Catholic Church. Let's say yes to Jesus' command to "follow me", as we delve into His teachings of love and freedom. This class also serves as our RCIA program, which provides instruction to adults who are interested in receiving the Sacraments of Baptism, Communion, or Confirmation - and is open to any Catholic or non Catholic adult who is desiring to learn more about the Catholic faith.

Classes will take place in the small classroom next to the hall, and will be held on Thursday evenings, 7:15-8:15. Our first class is Thursday, October 3.
