Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, Apostles – June 29, 2025

“You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church.” – Matthew 16:18

This weekend we honor two extraordinary men who changed the course of history—not through wealth or power, but through their radical faith in Jesus Christ. Saint Peter and Saint Paul, very different in personality and mission, are united in one purpose: to proclaim Christ crucified and risen.

Peter was a humble fisherman, often impulsive, yet deeply loyal. Paul was a learned Pharisee, fiery and relentless. One denied Jesus in fear; the other persecuted Him in ignorance. Yet Jesus transformed them both. Peter became the first pope, the visible foundation of the Church. Paul became the fearless missionary, taking the Gospel to the ends of the earth. Their lives show us that God uses the imperfect, the broken, the unexpected—to build something eternal.

In a time when society often divides people into camps—by politics, language, culture, or class—Peter and Paul teach us the power of unity in diversity. They didn’t always agree (Galatians 2:11–14), but their common faith in Christ was stronger than their differences. The Church today still stands because of their witness, their letters, and their martyrdom.

This solemnity calls us to remember that we, too, are called to be apostles—sent out into the world with faith, courage, and love. Like Peter, we may stumble. Like Paul, we may have a past. But Christ still calls us. His Church still needs us. And the world still hungers for the truth, they proclaimed.

Let us pray for our Church—founded on Peter and evangelized by Paul—that it may remain faithful and bold. And let us ask their intercession for ourselves, that we may live with conviction, speak with courage, and follow Jesus wherever He leads.

St. Peter and St. Paul, defenders of the faith, pray for us.

In Memoriam: Father Louis J. Nichols

Dear Friends,

We are saddened to share the news of Father Louis J. Nichols' passing on June 19 at the age of 93. His funeral Mass will be held on Monday, June 30 at St. Anthony's Church in Mendocino, followed by burial at the cemetery across the street.

Fr. Nichols first served as parish administrator of St. Anthony of Padua in Willits, later ministering at Our Lady Queen of Peace in Clearlake. By 2005, he became pastor of St. Anthony Church in Mendocino, where he faithfully served until his retirement. Even in retirement, he remained active in the Church and community, assisting at nearby parishes while living in Point Cabrillo with his loyal Doberman Pinscher.

Please remember Father Nichols in your prayers. Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.
