“Peace to this house!” – Luke 10:5

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,
On this Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Jesus sends us out—just like the seventy-two disciples—to bring peace, hope, and healing. Today more than ever, our world needs peace in our homes, our hearts, and our communities.

In today’s world—so often marked by tension, division, and fear, too, are being sent. We may not walk dusty roads like the disciples, but we walk into homes, workplaces, conversations, and moments where peace is deeply needed. The harvest is indeed plentiful. There are people all around us hungry for encouragement, mercy, and truth. Jesus is asking each of us to be His laborers—not with anxiety, but with joy, kindness, and courage.

As your pastor, I am deeply grateful for the many ways you live out this mission. Whether by offering a listening ear, helping a neighbor, serving at Mass, or supporting the work of our parish, your faith is alive. And this summer offers us a special time to go deeper into that mission. Even while many are traveling or enjoying family vacations, we are invited to rest in God and remember that we are His messengers of peace

This July, we will begin important repairs to our Parish Church and Parish Hall.

At the Church, we’ve noticed damage on the front exterior wall, with swelling and exposed foam—signs of moisture underneath. Inside the church, in the corners and side walls, the wall panels are worn and damaged due to past water leaks.

In the Parish Hall, we’ll be repairing the entryway walls, the small storage room, and the stairway to the loft, where cracks and signs of wear need attention and repainting.

We are grateful for your prayers and support as we care for God’s house. May Our Lady of Mount Carmel, whose feast we celebrate on July 16, protect us and help us continue living our faith with joy and commitment.

In Christ and Mary,
Fr. Sudhakar Mannam
Pastor
