Pastor's Message – 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year C)

"You also must be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect." – Luke 12:40

Dear Parish Family,

This Sunday's Gospel from Luke 12:32–48 offers us a timely and powerful message: stay awake, be vigilant, and live as faithful servants of the Lord. Jesus reminds us that the life of a Christian is not a life of spiritual sleepwalking, but a life of alertness, trust, and readiness.

He tells us, "Gird your loins and light your lamps" (Luke 12:35), calling us to be prepared not just for the end of our earthly life, but for the daily comings of Christ—through prayer, in the people around us, in the needs of others, and in unexpected graces. To "stay awake" spiritually means more than just waiting. It means living each day with intentional faith. It means choosing love over indifference, mercy over judgment, and trust over fear. As St. Augustine once said, "God has promised forgiveness to your repentance, but He has not promised tomorrow to your procrastination."

In the same spirit, St. Teresa of Ávila reminded us, "Christ has no body now but yours... Yours are the eyes with which He looks with compassion on this world."

Let us reflect: are we living as servants who are ready for the Master's return? Do we keep the flame of faith burning in our hearts, or do we let it flicker out in distraction or discouragement?

This Gospel is not meant to frighten us but to inspire us—to live every moment with the joyful expectation that God is near. Every act of kindness, every silent prayer, every honest work done with love becomes a lamp that lights our way and prepares us to meet the Lord.

May this Sunday be a reminder that our Christian calling is not just to believe, but to be awake, alert, and active in love.
