Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time Year C

Gospel

Luke 14:1, 7-14

On a sabbath Jesus went to dine at the home of one of the leading Pharisees, and the people there were observing him carefully.

He told a parable to those who had been invited, noticing how they were choosing the places of honor at the table. "When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not recline at table in the place of honor.

A more distinguished guest than you may have been invited by him, and the host who invited both of you may approach you and say, 'Give your place to this man,' and then you would proceed with embarrassment to take the lowest place.

Rather, when you are invited, go and take the lowest place so that when the host comes to you he may say, 'My friend, move up to a higher position.'

Then you will enjoy the esteem of your companions at the table.

For every one who exalts himself will be humbled, but the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

Then he said to the host who invited him,

"When you hold a lunch or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or your wealthy neighbors, in case they may invite you back and you have repayment.

Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you. For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous."

A Prayer to Bless Our Children as They Begin a New School Year

Dear Parents and Grandparents,
As your children embark on this new school year, let us lift them up in faith and call down God's protection, guidance, and blessings upon them.

Heavenly Father, Almighty and Ever-Loving God,
We entrust our beloved children into Your hands as they begin this new school year.

We ask You to anoint their minds with wisdom,
Their hearts with courage,

And their spirits with joy and wonder.

May Your Holy Spirit guide them in every lesson they learn,

Every friendship they form, and every choice they make.

Guard them from harm, protect them from discouragement, and surround them with Your angels.

Lord Jesus, be their teacher, their friend, and their guide.

May they grow not only in knowledge, but in faith, virtue, and love for You.

We, their parents and grandparents, lay our hands upon them now,

Blessing them in Your mighty Name.

May they shine with Your light, walk in Your truth, and bear the fruits of Your Spirit wherever they go.

We ask this through Christ our Lord,

Amen.
