Divine Mercy Sunday Message:

Divine Mercy Sunday is one of the most beautiful gifts of the Easter season.

On this Second Sunday of Easter, the Church reminds us that the Risen Jesus does not come to condemn us, but to heal us with His peace, His wounds, and His mercy. This feast has a beautiful history. In the 1930s, Jesus revealed to Saint Faustina Kowalska His desire that the world trust in His mercy and return to Him with confidence. Years later, Pope John Paul II, deeply devoted to this message, officially established Divine Mercy Sunday for the whole Church on April 30, 2000, during the canonization of Saint Faustina. He called mercy "the Easter gift that the Church receives from the risen Christ." This feast is not simply about a devotion it is about the very heart of the Gospel. The mercy of Jesus is stronger than our sins, greater than our wounds, and deeper than our fears. The risen Lord enters even the locked doors of our hearts and gently says: "Peace be with you."

Divine Mercy Sunday invites us to trust again: to trust that God never tires of forgiving, to trust that no one is beyond His love, and to become instruments of mercy for others. In a world often marked by fear and division, the message of this Sunday is simple and powerful: Mercy changes everything.

May this Easter season renew our hearts, so that with childlike faith we may say each day:

Jesus, I trust in You!
