Christ is Risen! Alleluia!

"He is not here, He has risen." (Matthew 28:6)

Dear brothers and sisters,
Happy Easter,

Today we celebrate the greatest truth of our faith: Jesus has conquered death. What seemed like the end had become a new beginning. The women went to the tomb with sorrow, but they found hope. In the same way, God turns our pain into joy and our darkness into light.

The Resurrection reminds us that sin does not have the last word—nor death, nor suffering. Christ is alive, and He offers us new life.

Through Baptism, we share in this life. Every time we love, forgive, and trust in God, we live the Resurrection. If you carry something heavy in your heart today, remember:

The tomb is empty.

Christ is alive.

And He loves you.

Let us go forth with joy and hope, bringing this good news to the world.
